Herman for Hamilton

CINCINNATI – In a first-ever, one-of-a-kind, unprecedented move for a local candidate in Hamilton County, Dr. Herman Najoli is premiering a full-feature length film, TWO HUNDRED THIRTY MILES. The movie tells the story of Dr. Najoli's run through Hamilton County as he establishes his campaign to be the next Hamilton County Commissioner. The full movie will be about 2 hours, 40 minutes. This is being released today and can be accessed freely through YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XDrh3PXhdUY>

TWO HUNDRED THIRTY MILES is the remarkable first half of Dr. Najoli's campaign as he powers through a sportsmanlike campaign that is refreshing – a reawakening of sweat and spirit. Nicknamed the 'Jogging candidate' and the 'Running Machine' by two of his closest friends, Dr. Najoli is blazing a new trail for local politics. He already has the most comprehensive platform ever produced by any candidate running for Hamilton County Commissioner.

THTM is the story of how a candidate for local public office hammered out almost 1,000,000 steps in jogging, going to all of Hamilton County's 52 residential ZIP Codes. This campaign is alive with the American spirit. Dr. Najoli defines it as 'one ordinary citizen creating, carving, and casting a vision for a new future'. The film captures the first 115 days of Dr. Najoli's 230-day campaign (March 17th to November 3rd) to be elected Hamilton County Commissioner. Fifty-five (55) of the 115 days were lost due to the stay-at-home order following the outbreak of the Coronavirus. Dr. Najoli was disappointed but when the running began, he crushed his goals – running in all weather – rain or shine. He ended up completing all the running two weeks ahead of the initial projected completion date!
