Herman for Hamilton

MEDIA ADVISORY: Dr. Najoli to make his closing Stump Speech on Monday October 5th, 2020 at 2:30 PM in his backyard

PRICE HILL, OH – One day before the start of early voting, Dr. Herman Najoli, Independent Candidate for Hamilton County Commissioner, will step up on top of the stump of a tree. This will be the most significant demonstration ever by a candidate for Commissioner in the 230-year history of Hamilton County. On Monday October 5 at 2:30 PM, Dr. Najoli will deliver his closing argument on why he should be elected the next Hamilton County Commissioner. Media are invited for this event which will have social distancing and follow all state of Ohio COVID-19 guidelines.

Dr. Najoli recently cut this tree in his backyard and the video is available for free use below:

The date and time are significant.

- October is the tenth month and represents the 10 months of signature collection for access to the ballot as an Independent candidate.
- 5 represents the five planks of Dr. Najoli's campaign slogan, MOVE FORWARD, BE FIRST, LEAD (<https://drnajoli.com/planks/>).
- 2:30 PM represents the 230-year history of Hamilton County not having either an Independent or a Black male make it to the ballot for Commissioner.

Dr. Najoli is finalizing a stage in his backyard that will be the most original campaign speech stump ever prepared by a candidate on his own in the 230-year history of Hamilton County and the 244 year history of the United States. Please reach out to experience this first-in-230 years and only one in 244-years event. Reach out to Dr. Najoli at 513-LEADERS.
